ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Frank A. B. offers a lot of men's $5 and $8 shoes, sample, special and broken lots, at $3.98.
Flower Girls at "The Garden Party." A dozen pretty members of the Halle club, selling flowers and the artistic souvenir program in the lobby and through the audience during the intermission, will be a novel feature at the Broadway theater Friday and Saturday evenings at the production of "The Garden Party" by Open House and the Halle club.
The girls will be wearing for their own club in the sale of their flowers and souvenirs, as all the money realized goes to the Halle club, a worthy cause which has been the most generous patronage of the pretty girls, pretty flowers and beautiful souvenirs.

BREED THEATER.

Messrs. Cooper and McNulty Act as Hosts.
The Broadway school in a body attended the Breed theater, Wednesday afternoon, as the guests of the management, and it is interesting to say that no opportunity was lost to applaud.
They came to the managers personally, many of them, and they were their thanks. The Prairie Town Romance was a hit, and the people are loath to let it go.

The brilliant rendition of Love's Sorrows by Madam Morelle was again followed by her charming Comin' Thro' the Rye. She is a great drawing card and the music is a feature of her performances. Wednesday evening's attendance was excellent, withstanding the adverse conditions.
The entire bill is changed for Thursday, and those visiting this popular place will be repaid amply for their effort, this being an unusual one.

Roderick Theater.
That the pictures at the Roderick are meeting with the approval of all the public was evident from the crowd which have attended the little theater all week, it being necessary to stop selling tickets twice last evening. The bill for the remainder of the week will no doubt draw the same crowds, as they are of the first-class variety.
Among them being "The Miner's Daughter," "The Awkward Affection," "Naughty Little Princess," John's New Suit, and featuring The Unexpected Santa Claus.
For a song Mr. O'Neil has selected the new ballad entitled "Mary Blaine," with beautiful slides, thus completing a first-class program.

Best of Vaudeville at Sheedy's.
The show is a hummer this week at Sheedy's Auditorium and although the weather has been bad, good houses have prevailed. Miss Josephine Arthur & Co., head liners, give a very new program in a little slinking sketch, "The Awkward Affection." It is a comedy and good singing, which has made good with every audience.
Italia, the little singing comessienne, is the best singer of comic songs in the female line that has appeared at this house. Her dancing is also a big feature. Her act, "Alvina and Athelthe European contortionists, have set the audience breathless with their contortion feats.

OCCUM AND VERSAILLES.

Sales and Old Folks' Concert at Methodist Church Nets $50—Rivers-Dunn Marriage.
The Ladies' Aid society held a sale and gave an old folks' concert in the vestry of the Versailles Methodist Episcopal church last Friday night.
Booths were arranged about the vestry and were artistic in construction and decorated with reference to the valentine season. Near the platform was a booth with heart-shaped opening, adorned with red and white, with hearts suspended from the roof frame.
Here Mrs. Frederick Toppitt and Mrs.
C. H. Phillips dispensed hot chocolate.
To the left of this, at the side of the room, was a cake booth somewhat larger and differing in form, beautifully decorated with red and white crepe paper. Honey made, candy and hot cream were sold by Mrs. George Allen, Mrs. Moll and Miss Cora Tarbox. In a white cottage, trimmed with red and glittering hearts, Mrs. A. A. Baldwin and Mrs. C. H. Phillips dispensed hot chocolate. Opposite was a booth for cy articles, in charge of Mrs. A. R.
Boutelle and Mrs. H. A. Richards.
This booth was in white and green feathers, with a large bell overhead, another being suspended from the opening in the center.
The candy and ice cream booth was elaborately constructed and beautifully decorated with red and white crepe
paper. Honey made, candy and hot
cream were sold by Mrs. George Allen,
white cottage, trimmed with red and

ing in the center.

The Rev. D. B. McLane gave several selections on the violin which were received with much enthusiasm. Mrs.
Bennett of Dayville entertained with three readings, which were well appreciated. The affair was a decided success and the ladies cleared over $20, to be applied to improving the audium of the church.

The committee in charge of the entertainment was Mrs. William Mac-Lennan and Miss Sarah Thomas. The accompanied for Rev. Mr. McLane's violin solo was played by Mrs. Mac-Lennan.

WEDDING.

Rivers-Dunn.
On Monday morning at Taunton, Mass., Miss Alice Dunn and Fred Rivers were united in marriage at St.
Mary's church. Mr. Rivers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rivers of this place, where the happy couple are spending a few days of their honeymoon.

Notes.
The Royal orchestra gave a successful dance in Parent hall Saturday night. Prof. Charles Tetreault was prompter.
Mr. and Mrs. John Quinn were recent visitors in Boston.
C. W. Perkins and Mrs. Fred Top-pitt were in Wauregan Tuesday attending the funeral of Mrs. Henry N.
Wood.
C. Morgan Williams has finished the outside of the new roof on the Totoket mill, and is taking down the staging.

JEWETT CITY.

Veranda Thief Active—Rainfall 13.4 Inches—John A. Owen Undergoes Surgical Operation.

Tuesday evening Miss Frances Holmes called at the home of Dr. W.
H. Gane, leaving her umbrella and rubbers on the veranda. When she started for home both were gone. Last week her father had the same experience, as an umbrella was taken from the same place, while he was in the house.

The rain gauge at Dr. S. H. Holmes' shows a rainfall of 13.4 inches during the week ending Feb. 14th. Dr. S. H.
Holmes accompanied John A. Owen on Tuesday to Hackus hospital, where he underwent an operation.

STAFFORD SPRINGS.

Damage Done by Ice Storm—Seniors Give Pretty Play—Big Bass Caught.

The ice storm Tuesday did considerable damage to telephone wires in this section. The trees also suffered some from the load of ice. In some places on the country roads it was almost impossible to get by with teams on account of the branches reaching across the roads.

Senior Dramatics.

The high school entertainment in St.
Edward's hall Wednesday evening was well attended. The feature of the evening was the presentation of the play, "Out of Town," by members of the senior class. The cast was a good one and the various parts were taken with much ability.

Edward Russell has gone to Waltham, Mass., where he will act as overseer in the finishing department of a wooden mill.

A several black bass, which were caught in Mashapaug lake by H. W.
Mogk and Louis Helm have been on exhibition at the Roderick's window.
The largest weighed 3 1/2 pounds.

$200,000,000.
